Go Behind the Scenes to Find, Discover and Learn

To most people, the mention of Los Angeles conjures images of Hollywood, starlets, beaches and surfboards. But Angelenos know there is more to their city than just the glitz and glamour of nighttime Hollywood or the coconut aroma of tanning oil on a sunny beach. The city and its surrounding areas offer a wealth of historic, cultural and natural experiences that few other cities can match. Hike-LosAngeles.com focuses on introducing visitors and residents of the City of Angels to the natural wonders that abound here, often within footsteps of the concrete and asphalt urban sprawl that is metro Los Angeles. With Hike-LosAngeles.com you will be able to:

- Find hikes near your location
- Discover wilderness areas amidst the urban sprawl
- Uncover historic sites and pristine natural areas
